Welcome Guests! We are glad to see you and happy that you have joined us today to praise and worship our Lord and Savior. Please fill out a guest card found in the pew rack in front of you.

To Our Guests Regarding Holy Communion—As a member congregation of The Lutheran Church--Missouri Synod, we believe we truly eat and drink the Body and Blood of Christ in His Sacrament, for forgiveness, life, and salvation. We ask that all who commune share this belief with us, and confess our common faith and doctrine. Communicant members of LCMS parishes and partner churches are welcome to commune.
+ If you are new to us, please speak with the pastor before the service.
+ Please fill out a card in the pew rack in front of you.
+ Guests who are not communing are welcome to come forward for a blessing during the Eucharist. You may fold your arms over your heart to indicate that you simply want a blessing.

Flowers on the Altar are given to the glory and honor of God by Jan DeValk in memory of her parents Rose and George Vytlačil.

Thank You to our youth and their parents for all their hard work which made our Easter Breakfast such a wonderful time of fellowship! We are also grateful to all those who attended and supported the youth. We are blessed to have such an active group of youth and a congregation that always shows up for them!

There will be no Youth Catechesis tomorrow, April 28th. The class will meet on Monday, May 5th, at 5:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall for the final class before summer break.

Activity Bags/Children’s Bulletins—Just a reminder to parents that we provide activity bags for the children. The blue bags, hanging in the narthex by the entrance to the sanctuary, contain books, coloring pages, crayons, and blank paper on which to draw. For young readers we also offer “Lessons for Lambs” bulletins which contain the gospel reading for the day with questions you can discuss with them later, a Catechism lesson, and a word search puzzle. You can ask the usher for the children’s bulletins as you enter.

A Prayer As You Go—Eternal God, we thank You that you have granted unto us to hear Your Word, to proclaim it and to receive it in the holy Sacrament; to call upon You and to praise You; and to serve You as Your people whom You have called to eternal joy. Amen.

Table of Duties: What the Hearers Owe Their Pastors

We ask you, brothers, to respect those who work hard among you, who are over you in the Lord and who admonish you. Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other.
1 Thess. 5:12-13

Obey your leaders and submit to their authority. They keep watch over you as men who must give an account. Obey them so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no advantage to you.
Heb. 13:17

Quasimodo Geniti: 2nd Sunday of Easter

Introit

Psalm 81:1, 7a, 10, 16b; antiphon: 1 Peter 2:2a

Like newborn infants, Alle- | luia,*

long for the pure spiritual milk [of the Word.] Alle- | luia.

Sing aloud to | God our strength;*

shout for joy to the God of | Jacob!

In distress you called, and I de- | livered you;*

I answered you in the secret place of | thunder.

I am the | Lord your God,*

who brought you up out of the land of | Egypt.

Open your mouth wide, and I will | fill it;*

and with honey from the rock I would sat- | isfy you.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*

and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning,*

is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

Like newborn infants, Alle- | luia,*

long for the pure spiritual milk [of the Word.] Alle- | luia.

Collect of the Day

Almighty God, grant that we who have celebrated the Lord's resurrection may by Your grace confess in our life and conversation that Jesus is Lord and God; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
